Would you die for would you die for the bite behind cemetery walls you've come to wait for the night life holds no meaning more for you you look for something dark and true you've come to meet the flock tonight It's time to leave your life behind

Become undead
Become undead

Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army

Have you felt lost felt like you just don't belong alienated from a world with your place in it so wrong you're just trying to get by it's meaningless you live a lie let go find comfort and revenge embrace the dark become undead

Become undead
Become undead

Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army

Become undead
Become undead
Become undead
Become....

Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army

Come join the undead army
Come join the undead army
