wynter gordon:

dim the lights, so you can see me close you mouth, don't speak, just feel me closer we become, together we will fall love then we won this night, this night, we give ourselves one night the mood is set, the food is eaten

the time is right for love, it's beating a little bit of talk, a little bit of pleasure a little bit of making out, and then we work it out

a little smoky smoke,
tell me a dirty joke
up on your roof,

we don't need nobody,
it's our little party, it's just us two
just us too
and we don't need nobody, cause we go ladi dadi just us two, me and you
me and you

feel the kiss, and the smile so softly we're just friends, but i like you slightly we won't cross the line we'll go on proper date some time just a boy and a girl, just us two in the world

a little smoky smoke,
up on your roof,

take a walk with me and we'll go dancing in the rain and baby we'll run under a tree i'll look at you you'll look at me
