Don't tell me once again that this was all just according to plan
I thought I'd seen everything hidden up your sleeve
I never saw this coming
If only I could find a way
A way through this pain
Never again
Never again

You left me stranded
You left me scared
I can barely hold on Quiet, I've heard all that there is to hear
You stated your fears to my ears
Never again
Falling over I had to let go of all that I knew

Whatever happened to forever now it's never
(I hope you shake and shiver when you roll over to the cold side of the bed I'm not there) Hey faithless, we can't be
I never expected it to come to this so goodbye
happiness
(You made me think that I would never be good enough so I kept at it, I gave and gave and gave)
Goodbye
Goodbye

When you're done saying where I went wrong
Could you bare to tell me where I belong?

I'll fight 'til there's nothing left of me
I'll go wherever I need
I'll fly to the furthest star to forget the fact that you left me
I'll fight 'til there's nothing left of me
I'll go wherever I need
I'll fly to the furthest star to find out how to live my dreams
You had me at goodbye

Now it's all coming through

I'm finally seeing you
Hey faithless, it's all coming...
(Whatever happened to forever now it's never)
Whatever happened to forever now it's never
(I hope you shake and shiver when you roll over to the cold side of the bed, I'm not there)
Hey faithless
We can't be
I never expected it to come to this so goodbye
(You made me think that I would never be good enough
so I kept at it, I gave and gave and gave)
Goodbye
Goodbye

Hey faithless
You know I needed more
I guess that's what best friends are for
Hey faithless
You know I needed more
I guess that's what best friends are for

(Waste away like the smoke that disperses in the air
And watch me live on Watch me fight and win and succeed
I know that breaks your heart
But it's all you deserve
And now we're even)
Hey faithless
You know I needed more
I guess that's what best friends are for
happiness)
(Goodbye)
(Goodbye)
Hey faithless
You know I needed more
I guess that's what best friends are for
happiness)
(Goodbye)
(Goodbye)
