Hey (x4)

My heart has done it's time
This city's calling me
But you should know
I'm not built for this
I'm as stable as my fate
Which card can I take
When life's the king of hearts and I'm just the joker

I'm wasting time on wasted friends
Who never thought that high of me

Time's up time's up
I've gotta get out of this town
I know we don't belong here
We don't belong here
Get out, get out, my walls are caving in and my watch is broken
But time ain't freezin

Another night, another drink
I find it hard to keep
My composure
When I'm not that sober
But I can learn a lesson
The red's washed off my hands
The bottle's to the grave

I'm wasting time on wasted friends
Who never thought that high of me

Time's up time's up
I've gotta get out of this town
I know we don't belong here
We don't belong here
Get out, get out, my walls are caving in and my watch
is broken
But time ain't freezin

Time's up time's up

I've gotta get out of this town
I know we don't belong here
