Wake up in the mornin and I cant wait to see your face
Never been this happy in all my life
Take a sip of water and lay gently by your side
Praying that the sun will never rise
A loving kiss upon your cheek for ya babe

I'm laying back and watch you sleep
Then I write a love song to tell you one more time
How I love you and I need you in my life...

'cause I can't live without you
I can't breathe without you

Cant see my life without you
I have no reason to doubt that
You were meant, meant for me
And I was meant for you
'cause I was meant for you

You were meant for me, yeah
'cause I was meant for you
'cause I was meant for...you
