She said it wasn't my fault
She said we gave it our all
And she walked away
I never saw the girls I spoke to, no
But tell me is there something I can do

Leave another message on the telephone
And you're parked outside with your headlights on

[Chorus:]

Suddenly I'm standing at your door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly he's all alone with you
He's looking in your eyes like I wanted to
I knock four times and pretend you're not at home
Suddenly I'm all alone
Suddenly I'm all alone

She said it wasn't the same (she said it wasn't the same)
You said our life's been so plain
Then she walked away
Want to make things brand new
Tell me is there something I can do, whoa

Leave another message on the telephone
And you're parked outside with your headlights on

[Chorus:]

Suddenly I'm standing at your door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly he's all alone with you
He's looking in your eyes like I wanted to

I knock four times and pretend you're not at home
Suddenly I'm all alone

Suddenly I'm all alone...
Suddenly I'm all alone...
The radio's playing...the radio's playing...

Suddenly I'm all alone...
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Yeah yeah yeah yeah

Suddenly I'm standing at the door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home

Suddenly I'm standing at the door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song (but it's not our song)
Suddenly I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home

Suddenly I'm standing at your door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song (not our song, oh)
Suddenly I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home
