Words like love and happiness
Never see to stand up baby
When you put them to the test yeah
You say that you're a poet
That your love's a work of art
But you can't paint love by numbers baby
You gotta play it all by heart

Chorus:

Baby baby baby baby
It happens all the time
How you play me
Play me play me
Playing with my mind
Baby baby baby baby
You're making me go crazy
If you call that love
Then love should be a crime

Honesty
Bites the dust
Every time I hear you saying
Love is never lust yeah
Did you read it in a book
Did you see it in a magazine
Do you think that I'm some new fool
Do you think I'm so naive

Chorus

Love should be a crime
You and me
Suddenly
We got nothing to say
But the words get in the way

Chorus

Then all it was
Was a pocketful of nothing
But a suicide of love
If you call that love

Then love should be a crime
