(Verse)

I'll wait by the docks for you
My starched white sailor boy
And I'll wait forever

Score another beer or two
Before I make my move
Now suggest the true state

(Chorus)

Come on my sailor
Just on shore leave
You're so inebriated
You want to slow dance
With me
With me

(Verse)

Mother load the anchors
On my oppressive snake
Sets me off, quiver

42 and overboard
But unable to think straight
Will you make a fall

(Chorus)

Oh come my sailor
Just on shore leave
You're so inebriated
You want to slow dance
With me
With me
With me
With me
With me
