Some of these boys are looking for their dream
Some of these girls are melting like ice-cream
Under the sun, the streets are not empty
The enemy's gone; this feeling's so tempting

Clowns and freaks, wanna join them too
Take my hand; it's all up to you
Shadows of buildings and brand new skies
Everyone lives and no one dies

The shadow of a boy I used to be, is the shadow of a life that's meant for me Could drag you all out, pulled myself up, raise your hands and say it, cause it's a Cut! Shadowboy!

Clowns and freaks, you can be one too
Hold my hand, it's up to you
Could change your moves to walk for miles
Spread your wings and fly so high

The shadow of a boy I used to be, the shadow of a life that's meant for me
Could drag you all out, pulled myself up, raise your fists and shout it, cause it's a
Cut! Shadowboy!

Let my shadow speak
To translate your dreams
Let my shadow speak
I'll translate your dreams
