She said to never speak her name I hear her walk out the door
And I feel all the sudden shame that never hit me before
She was a stranger not a face that I have seen here
before
And what I'm missing the memory that I gave up for more
For all the selfish reasons you would never let me explain
And I don't blame you if you never think of me as the same
And I was never really anything I wanted to be I guess we never really can be what we wanted to be

We never wanted to live like this We were too broken to handle it Let's pick it up where we left it
And put me down and put the flame out that we had lit

So many long nights spent thinking Of all the things ive been missing
You were the top of my list but I couldn't resist everything that was changing

Cuz we're all always changing, and we all will face it

We move on and on and we live in the moment
We move too fast and we never really know who we are But we'll start by singing this one, so please sing along

I'm sick of staying up so late
And yeah we're sick of having to wait For everything to go our way
For us to have a perfect day And leave everything behind; but keep everything we find
Close to our hearts and our mind; our mind

Cuz we're always changing, and we all will face it (gang) Do we know who we are; and did it ever really matter here at all?

WE MOVE ONNNNNNNNNNNNNNNNNNNNN!

[We move on and on, we live in the moment
We move too fast and we never really know who we are]
