Everybody needs to belong to somewhere; life can feel so alone without some one who cares. And when life becomes something just to get through, that's when I'm glad that I belong to you.

I belong to you, I belong to you, you're the one who will never let me down, won't let me down. I belong to you. Lord I belong to you.

Sometimes life brings more pain than we can bear alone. When hope is gone and I have no strength to stand on my own, when nothing helps, there's nothing that I can do, you surround me and show me I belong to you.

I belong to you. I belong to you, you're the one who will never let me down, won't let me down, I belong to you.

I belong to you. I belong to you. You will never let me down. (wont let me down) Yeah I belong.

Love is gone there's no arms to run to anymore, I'm all alone there's no one for me to live for, letting go of the things I've always clung to, that's when I need to feel that I belong to you.

I belong to you, I belong to you you're the one who will never let me down, won't let me down. I belong to you.

I belong to you. You... I belong to You. Your the one who will never let me down. Wont let me down. I belong to you.

I belong to you. I belong to you.
