Wanna quit and give up, something says, to pack it up Shot down from all sides, don't know why, I tried Take this and kiss it, if I won't miss it I wanna go back to L.A., I don't belong, that's what they say

They said, "Don't try to change the world, you're just a girl"
So it's me against the world today, I'm gonna do it my own way
I doubt, nobody understands, I'm gonna make a one girl stand
It's my independence day, I can't waste time on what they say
If we believe and we have faith, we're gonna change
the world someday

Back again, one more time, couldn't keep me down last time Even wanna go on faith to take on the world and make waves
Still standing defiance, maybe we, against the giants L.A. wasn't build in a day, dreams go along but I still play

They said, "Don't try to change the world, you're just a
girl"
So it's me against the world today, I'm gonna do it my
own way
I doubt, nobody understands, I'm gonna make a one
girl stand
It's my independence day, I can't waste time on what they say
If we believe and we have faith, we're gonna change
the world someday

If we believe that we have faith
We're gonna change the world someday
If we believe that we have faith
We're gonna change the world someday

They said, "Don't try to change the world, you're just a

girl"

So it's me against the world today, I'm gonna do it my
own way

girl stand

It's my independence day, I can't waste time on what
they say

the world someday
