Lady I'm gonna make you happy
If it's the last thing I do
And baby, you're gona have to stop me
From making a fool out of myself
Although there's sunshine right around the corner
I feel it's always raining harder than ever Hold on a minute baby I've got something to say about it
You ain't going nowhere
'Cos I ain't done loving you yet
You don't stand a chance'cos I ain't taking no for an answer
Just let me show you baby
'Cos I ain't done loving you yet
Lately, I've had an awful feeling Like I'm the only one who's getting through to you Then and now it's getting like I've been losing my hold on you
Although there's sunshine right around the corner
I feel it's always raining harder than ever
Hold on a minute baby I've got something to say about
it
You ain't going nowhere
'Cos I ain't done loving you yet
You don't stand a chance'cos I ain't taking no for an answer
Just let me show you baby
'Cos I ain't done loving you yet
Ain't done loving, ain't done loving you, ain't done loving you yet (x
