I know fairy tales never existed,
If it does but not for me,
Forget the past start with beginning,
And I bet it'd be a better starting,
Now I'm just free all the time,
Nobody to stop, nobody to stand behind,

It feels like there's nothing to worry about,
There's nothing to sort out,
All the silly fights which stands for nothing,
But vanishes A big meaning,
Now I'll my move face another side,
When you'll look at me and smile,
Whoah!

I'm so tired of all those words you say,
I'll never again play that game,
I've been suffering a longtime a lot,
Now just left you behind to get kick out,

I've a thing that I've left to say,
It's my last song for you,
My last time I'm wasting on you,
Hope to never again see you,
My every line is so true,
It's my last song for you,

I played your game and I won,
I'm over but still stay strong,
You're gonna realize what you've lose,
And you know you're now refused,
You were and you're still a loser,
And I rank you as a best teaser,
When it'll come again to you,
I'll say!

I'm so tired of all those words you say,
I'll never again play that game,
I've been suffering a longtime a lot,
Now just left you behind to get kick out,

I've a thing that I've left to say,
It's my last song for you,
My last time I'm wasting on you,
Hope to never again see you,
My every line is so true,
It's my last song for you,

I don't care you're with who,
I've taken out your memories and blew,
Away from my life and you know,
Last song for you, Last song for you,
My last time I'm gonna waste,
Sorry Saying goodbye so late,

I'm so tired of all those words you say,
I'll never again play that game,
I've been suffering a longtime a lot,
Now just left you behind to get kick out,

I've a thing that I've left to say,
It's my last song for you,
My last time I'm wasting on you,
Hope to never again see you,
My every line is so true,
It's my last song for you,
