Let's take a ride towards what we are,
I'll take you there Have faith on me,
Looking to skies and counting the stars, together and forever let's keep believing,

Hold my hands close your eyes,
Don't be scared to fly upon skies, like a caterpillar turn in a butterfly,
Spread it's wings and fly so high,

So, come on with me let's make,
Make a home where we can take,
Our breath with having a faith,
On a better tommrow than today,

Let's wish upon a shooting star,
Keep believing on the star,
To tell us one day what we are,
wishing upon a shooting star,
Let's wish upon a shooting star,

Everywhere you are that star is,
And I'm sure It could never miss,
To be with his shine, that's you,
And believe me have faith that's true,

Take this three words in your mind
I think, I believe, I can...
Just only take this all the time,
Wish upon a shooting star,

You're never alone you are with you,
So never say you to be alone,
the star will keep brighting his shone,
Let's wish upon a shooting star,

Listen to your Heart,
Look at what it says,
to flow in your spurt,
Just on only your way,

Let's wish upon a shooting star,

Keep believing on the star,
To tell us one day what we are,
wishing upon a shooting star,
Let's wish upon a shooting star,

Don't let your sparkle fade away,
Every day bring a beginng,
Express it in many diffrent ways,
and let you be so free,

Let's wish upon a shooting star,
Keep believing on the star,
To tell us one day what we are,
wishing upon a shooting star,
Let's wish upon a shooting star,
