Here we are with the latest de ja vu you wouldn't believe what I've been through sieg heil to the nazi in my house lately I've been so lost and found our generation never stood a chance light the fuckers and wath them dance you've gotta do it on your own go now son and don't come home

You can't deny that drugs are fun you raise your glass but the war's never won so get he fuck out of my face I've had enough of your selfish ways and I know and I refuse to change

If I die on this lonely night I'll be living the perfect lie I can't dream and I can't cry with all these feelings locked up inside they're gonna rip straight out of my chest my beating heart's been laid to rest so sing the song and dance the dance I've finally blown my final chance to be like you to be like them I'll just be this junkie instead everything's gone there's nothing left so bring upon my lonely death
