Sleeping In Staurdays, taking time to get to know your face, Breathing in your smell on me, I'm addicted you know to vanilla these days, Butterfly Kisses and the promise you'll spend all night
this time,
I just wanna say thankyou for taking a chance on a feeling inside so,

Here's A Love song for all the times you felt second place,
And here's a Love song for all the smiles that come when I see your face, Here's A love Song

I walk into the winter night the city lights take the place of the stars in your eyes,
I lost the moon again..
But I'll stopped looking I guess when love caught me by surprise
You're gonna be hard to get over,
So I won't I dont think for a very long time
And In the summer Ill warm your bed if you promise you'll warm mine

And here's a love song for all the times i fell into your eyes
And here's a love song for all the things you taught me lastnight
Here's a Love Song

Here's a love song for all the things that you never said And here's a love song for the night you left your braclet at the end of my bed Heres A Love Song....
