I've tried to hide I've tried not to fight it but I think I
I cannot do this anymore I've tried to love you I've tried to forgive you but I think I cannot do this anymore
The things is I never let things go I hide it where no one knows in the 80's she dreamt of many things hoping love will bring her dreams
in the 80's oh in the 80's

My heart was yours once I couldn't let you go Thought you were the only one that didn't love us so Now is it wrong for you or is it wrong for me to have loved us so Now is it wrong for you or is it wrong for me to love us
so
I guess you didn't love me so

I've tried to hold onto this love that I never knew
But I think I cannot do this anymore
I try to convince my heart that loving you was never smart but I think I , I can not do this anymore

Forgiveness is letting go of the thought That things could've been different in the 80's
She dreamt of many things hoping love will bring her dreams in the 80's
Oh in the 80's
