Shaped like a gun this was our love
Shaped like an arrow that you pointed at me
Shaped like a heart this was your face
And everyone would say we are so perfect in every way

But we were only lovers torn in two
And under the covers we were nothing but through
Shaped like a gun this was our love
But we were only lovers torn in two

Shaped like a gun
This was our love
Taste of poison kiss of your lips
Feelings of hate twist of fate
And I would always say lets just give it one more day
