CHORUS

nunua mango hapo kwangu
karibia msichana mrembo

nunua mango
hapo kwangu
kila siku
si ta kudanganya

VSERSE 1

thats what my uncle mwangi said on the road with his fruit shop every day, in the middle of town dressed so well all his clothes fit in every way and me on the corner next looky looky for da fish fresh looky looky for the business looky looky for the interest living with mwangi under the palm tree, everything he showed me everything he told me what to grow up to be end lessly he would TELL me live up Nairobi like obi wan Kenobi work for the star fleet, driving a harley sting like a bee from cassius clay Mohamed ali but my shirt had one sleeve missing, im not even kidding, my heart said listen, nothing wrong with selling a little mango do it with a twist though, follow this tempo

VERSE 2

Thats what I would stand there and say, on the road with my fruit shop every day,

in the middle of town dressed so well all my clothes fit in every way and my kid on the corner next looky looky for da fish fresh

looky looky for the business

working with the kid had given me the hope back everything he said had made it so clear what he should grow up to be
end lessly he would TELL me

Im not gonna be like you dad Everyone can hear that I rap like 2pac Im not selling mango here forever My lifes already... looking so much better

But no schooltime would not make him shine He thought he would make it really big now heâ€™s just like me getting a kick From living on the street shouting to the beat

Thats what the cool kid would say,
on the road with his fruit shop every day,

looky looky for da fish fresh
looky looky for the business

Its exactly the same in Mombasa and Havanna Working on the street or for dolce and gabbana Tech nology is just a spice but endlessly, they will advertise

I donâ€™t think im being rude (b), but Happiness comes from an attitude of gratitude Floating around in sweet paradise You always get what you want if you ask really nice.

Its time to party louder turn on the power Im taking a shower I be there in one hour Im gonna dance like Michael Jackson all night Coz I refuse to get another mosquito bite do you want a cigarette - yeah well you cant get it from me - arhh Ok you can have a cigarette from me â€œthanks But not now â€œ ahh come on Ok you can have cigarette from me right now â€œ thanks

But not here â€œ arrrhhh come on man Have a mango.....
