"All of Me"

Worn out faces hangin on the wall
Forgein places, names you still recall
You say out loud to yourself, why you just don't care
Say the things no one else will ever dare Chorus: So pardon me for asking, pardon me for thinking (x2)
All of me is asking, all of me is thinking (x2)
So say it loud when you need it, "We've got tough emotions"
Do what you don't do
So say it loud when you need it, "We've got tough emotion."
I'm in all of you (x2)
So you lie to yourself, why you're just not scared
All the things that you felt were always there
Chorus
