You say your words so loudly that I cannot find my own You are affected, your hearts afflicted it knows what youâ€™ve done
And all those girls you say you hate, well have you met yourself?
Oh but Iâ€™m just a nobody nothing for you, unless you got no one else

And all the little words you say to me youâ€™re sure to forget by tomorrow
All your swords have left your hands
Well, now theyâ€™re mine

Call me a victim
No one likes victims except an audience Well you may clap your hands now while I take my last bow and exit this business Oh, you think Iâ€™m just a little girl Could a little girl walk on her own?
Oh and itâ€™s not as easy as it may seem to someone whoâ€™s never alone

And all the little words you say to me youâ€™re sure to
forget by tomorrow
All your swords have left your hands
Well, now theyâ€™re mine

You say your words so loudly so no one can hear their own
You are affected by your heartâ€™s affliction
You know you are wrong
And all the girls you claim to hate are your catalysts Oh but youâ€™re just a nobody Nothing for you unless youâ€™ve got someone else
