

Our Heart's Hero "More Than Everything"

I am flawed and I am shattered
I am pieces scattered in the wind
And everything I thought would matter
Has left me stranded, empty deep within
And I'm ready to begin again

You are more than everything
Your love is bigger than the brokenness I bring
I'm falling like I never fell before
The Lord of everything

You are grace and You are mercy
You're forgiveness hanging on a hill
You are healing to the hurting
A risen savior, a love they could not kill
And all You are is greater still

You are more than everything
Your love is bigger than the brokenness I bring
I'm falling like I never fell before
The Lord of everything

Adding it up
It's like counting the stars that shine
Your love is like an endless sky

You are more than everything
Your love is bigger than the brokenness I bring
I'm falling like I never fell before
I'm falling like I never fell before
The Lord of more than everything
