This night has grown so cold
And being this alone
It's plain to hear one heart beating

There's something more to find
And knowing deep inside
I've got to start believing

And oh, I thought forever
Could only be a dream

And oh, I'm falling faster
You're beautiful, that's for sure
Now can You save me?

Oh, all that matters
Is knowing I need You more
Now can You save me?

All that I've ever known
I'll have to let it go
To spread my wings for soaring

And oh, I thought forever
Could only be a dream

And oh, I'm falling faster
You're beautiful, that's for sure
Now can You save me?

And oh, all that matters
Is knowing I need You more
Can You save me?

You're the only one
Every time You come around
You can see right through me now
Every time You catch me

You're the only one
Every time You come around
You can see right through me now

Every time You catch me

Oh, I?m falling faster
You?re beautiful, that?s for sure
Now can You save me?

Oh, all that matters
Is knowing I need You more
Now can You save me?

I?m falling faster
I?m falling faster
I?m falling faster
I?m falling faster
