Here is where the road begins
You choose how this story ends
And every step will come alive
When you live out what's inside

Finding and believing
This is who you're meant to be

You know who are, who's holding your heart
This is the time to be a hero
Don't be afraid, get out of the shade
You've got what it takes to be a hero

In this world that's crashing down
Where the lost wait to be found
Standing tall, don't lose faith
Great is He that gives you strength

Trusting and believing
This is who you're meant to be

You know who are, who's holding your heart
This is the time to be a hero
Don't be afraid, get out of the shade
You've got what it takes to be a hero

Be the hands and be the feet
For someone that is in need
Be a light of hope in desperate times

You know who are
Who's holding your heart
Don't be afraid, don't be afraid

This is the time to be a hero
Don't be afraid, get out of the shade
You've got what it takes to be a hero

What it takes to be a hero
Don't be afraid to be a hero
You were made to be a hero
You were made to be a hero
