Can't believe she fell
The silence was unnerving
The crowd began to yell
Was the thought of her returning
So you never knew him well
But you know what you've been seeing
These images of guilt
And the concrete in her hair
So far
These lions still need taming
Its very sad very sad
No no
She fell very far very far
No no
For this cannonball this cannonball
As desperate as you felt
Were you strong enough to leave him
Oh you need to know him well
He's an angry acrobat
So you struggle with the will
With the will that you've been seeing
These images of guilt and the concrete in her hair
So far
These lions still need taming
Its very sad very sad
No no
She fell very far very far
No no
For this cannonball this cannonball
And he walked away from
And he walked away from
And he walked away from
And he walked away from
And he walked away from
Can't believe she fell
Well it happened in a turning
Struggle with the will but the thought
