Well Iâ€™ve never believed, in love at first sight.
But that all changed when I saw you last night.
Cause I knew from the moment, you walked through the door.
Here was the angel, that Iâ€™d been praying for.
You must be an angel, youâ€™re too good to be true.
And only an angel...could look like you do.

Chorus;
You must be my angel, sent from heaven above.
You look like an angel, like an angel of love.
You look like the angel, that Iâ€™ve been dreaming of.
Oh please be my angel, be my angel of love.

Some might see a woman, but thatâ€™s just a disguise.
Cause itâ€™s really an angel, behind those eyes.
You may just ask me, how it is I know?
Whenever she smiles, I can see her halo.
You must be my angel, cause youâ€™re all I can see.
And only my angel, could do this to me.

Chorus

I used to wonder, and ask myself why.
Some nights you canâ€™t find, not a star in the sky.
Then I heard a voice whisper in my ear,
say the stars run and hide, when my angel is near.
You must be my angel...youâ€™re too good to be true.
And only an angel...could look like you do.

You must be my angel, sent from heaven above.
you look like an angel...like an angel of love.
You look like the angel, that Iâ€™ve been dreaming of.
Oh please be my angel...say youâ€™ll be my angel,
be my angel of love.
