(feat. Pitbull & Jacki-O)

[Pitbull:]

Teedra Moses haha

Jacki-O

Pitbull

THIS is ah this goes out to every couple in the world that goes thru the same thing which is called cheatin I'ma tell u mami like I tell the judge I don't know nuthin about nuthin nowhere haha

Mami u know u the only one I can't control what they talk about

YOU listen to the he say she say might as well pack my shit start walkin out

You know they blood boil when ever they see us together

I'm not sayin I'm an angel but damn I thought u knew me better

Why u listenin to these foot draggin hood rats loose tongue havin with chicken head habits bitches

At the end of the day they wish they was u ain't no tellin what these bitches'll do u know it's the truth

If u know so much then where is the proof?

If I'm believin what I hear is true

Then there's a broad round town that's claimin u

Now listen Daddy I'm too cute to fight

U better get that bitch told tonite

And I don't ever I mean never ever ever wanna deal with this again hey

u better tell her tell her tell her tell her

I don't give a damn what's real what's fake what's truth what's lies see Darlin I don't feel

It's relavant to me

I don't wanna know her name where ya met if she some crazy chick just stalkin U I don't care

It's irrelavant to me

Pissed off as I am

Saucy at the bar lookin like a star when she got all in my face
talkin bout what u do when u do it to her I damn there slapped her face ok
She don't know me better ask someone
I don't play those silly chicken games oh no

If I'm believin what I hear is true
Then there's a broad round town that's claimin u
Now listen Daddy I'm too cute to fight
U better get that bitch told tonite
And I don't ever I mean never ever ever wanna deal
with this again hey
u better tell her tell her tell her tell her

If in fact u gave her your thing it doesn't matter babe I know her touch don't feel like mine
So fine I know her touch don't feel like mine yeah right If in fact u gave her a lil change doesn't matter cuz I know who's names on thee account
Mine my account mine no matter what the price
This was how it all went down
I was saucy at the bar lookin like a star when she got all in my face
talkin bout what u do when u do it to her
I damn there slapped her face ok ok ok
She don't know me better ask someone
There's no way you need to handle this thing yeah

If I'm believin what I hear is true
Then there's a broad round town that's claimin u
Now listen Daddy I'm too cute to fight
U better get that bitch told tonite
And I don't ever I mean never ever ever wanna deal
with this again hey
u better tell her tell her tell her tell her

[Jacki-O:]

If u deal with her straight up be real look me in my eye say that ya deal
Wanna know how I feel she ain't even on my level
If u gonna mess around then mess wit better Does she got chedda cuz she don't even pay bills Credit real does she put u in wheels?
Be real ain't nobody like Jacki Ain't no nan chick who can try & walk past me She talk sassy but ain't got a clue what a real gangsta bitch like me'll do Hit her with this diamond have her eyes bleedin

Kick her in the face with a Jimmy Choo shoe I will not be neglected or lied to Disrepected nor tried boo got chicks that be ready to ride boo
That'll snatch u up then hide u

If I'm believin what I hear is true
Then there's a broad round town that's claimin u
Now listen Daddy I'm too cute to fight
U better get that bitch told tonite
And I don't ever I mean never ever ever wanna deal
with this again hey
u better tell her tell her tell her tell her

If I'm believin what I hear is true
Then there's a broad round town that's claimin u
Now listen Daddy I'm too cute to fight
U better get that bitch told tonite
And I don't ever I mean never ever ever wanna deal
with this again hey
u better tell her tell her tell her tell her
