I think about my life all the craziness this world has been but i realized the craziness was me that i had been.

Now, i have grown into a man that I'd never known A man who knows this world has love eternity and even if i loved you for a short time of my life I will see you on the other side.

I can see the rainbows and butterflies
the beautiful colors in the sky
But, when i close my eyes,
and see your lovely smile
I know deep down inside,
I have an angel in the sky.....

everyday we must go on with all the burdens and the tears
I hope and pray your gonna stay with us all the way

We do not know what tomorrow brings for the rest of us learn to hope and pray my angel never dies
And when I see you again on the other side I'll have that hug and kiss for you my angel in the sky

I can see the rainbows and butterflies
the beautiful colors in the sky
But, when i close my eyes,
and see your lovely smile
I know deep down inside,
I have an angel in the sky.....

So, time will go by fast and slow and the world will be insane But everytime I feel the pain
I will just close my eyes

I can see the rainbows and butterflies
the beautiful colors in the sky
But, when i close my eyes,
and see your lovely smile
I know deep down inside,

I have an angel in the sky.....Oh my angel oh oh yeah

I can see the rainbows and butterflies
the beautiful colors in the sky
But, when i close my eyes,
and see your lovely smile
I know deep down inside,I have an angel in the sky.....

An angel in the sky....
