Someone was good to me last night,
For the first time in I don't know how long.
Somebody listened,
They didn't turn away.

Somebody looked at me last night,
Couldn't find one thing wrong.
Gave me somewhere else to go,
Somewhere else to stay.

Words fail me,
When you perform.
You'll always have me memory to keep you warm.

Got an old car, a moonlit road,
The stars on a midnight clear.
And I look at your face, and know my place,
Is out there with her,
Not here.

Words fail me,
When you perform.
You'll always have me memory to keep you warm.

Words fail me,
When you perform.
But you'll always have me memory to keep you warm.
You'll always have me memory to keep you warm.
