Every day that I live
Every day that I lie
I see you and I don't know why
Now that I'm dreaming - I hate that I'm alive
Yo, I wish this fantasy was my life

- VERSE 1 [JEMPAS] -

One day I woke up obsessed with life
Realised all the power that I had with might Always use to wonder whether I'd get Paid someday
Have stacks on decks
With a Chevrolet

Now I'm moving forward
At the speed of light
No ups and downs
No left or right

The girl of my dreams
Is a hot lil' thing
She won't abuse my cash
She won't abuse my bling

On the other hand
She does have exquisite taste
Fat ass, slim waist
With a pretty face

I refuse to let these hypocrites
Be telling me I can't make it
Coz on the soccer field
Is where my duties lie
I don't fake it
I break it

Err'day, err'day
Boy, i practice err'day

Don't blame your failures
On your circumstances
If you're a reading nigger

You can help yourself

Don't give up
Don't compromise
If you love your life
You won't compromise

Pretty girls need
A guy with penny
And life's too short
To say if only

- HOOK -
Every day that I live
Every day that I lie
I see you and I don't know why
Now that I'm dreaming - I hate that I'm alive
Yo, i wish this fantasy was my life

- VERSE 2 [THA REAL U] -
And every day that I'm living
My life astray

I think of you my boo,
In Saint Helena Bay

Wish you lived next door
Cause I'm feeling a lil' poor
Like can i borrow sugga?
Cause you know
You are my sweetener

You leave me diabetic
But it's okay

Cause I let these homies know
That you my baby-baby

Ay
Long walks on the beach together
Ay
No matter what - we still stay together

Like you feeling good
Well I'm feeling great

And when you feeling sad
I'm feeling like it was my mistake

A gentleman I wish to be
So why let you wait

My friends say you so mature
So let's meet during break

But girl you make my heart shake like an Earthquake

Vibrate,
My phone goes
When you text me,
I forget about all these dumb hoes
Like they Pepsi

Watch me get aboard this taxi
Just say the word
If you miss me

- HOOK -
Every day that I live
Every day that I lie
I see you and I don't know why
Now that I'm dreaming - I hate that I'm alive
Yo, I wish this fantasy was my life
