First day, a school I don't belong
Fat kid with geeky glasses on
"Take 'em off, wanna show you some new games"
Sorry mum, it'll be hard to make some friends
Girls laugh as they see me passing by
Punk-rock is too rude for those guys
Fancy dressed but with microscopic dicks
Not enough for a sexaholic chick

Then you try to be strong
It's not easy when they tell you that you're wrong
You know they don't understand a thing

Take take take, speed up your dreaming
Don't don't don't give up that feeling
No no no, another day of school
Wooh oh oh oh

Come home, your mother's on the phone
More fights, you gotta bear them all
Calm down and just think of your revenge
It's not cool when you have to be the man
Late night, the guys are partying hard
Dim lights, the sound of that guitar
Pretty hot, go on ask her to dance
Fuck off, I'm not into romance

Then you try to be strong
It's not easy when you only see that girl
You know she doesn't know anything

Take take take, speed up your dreaming
Don't don't don't give up that feeling
No no no, another day of school
Wooh oh oh oh
