Do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do do
Do do do do do do do do do do do
Stop thinking it's ok
Things are gonna change
You can't go on like this again
You can't avoid the day
You're the star that blast away
I heard you singing
Heard you sing, you sang to us
You sang Hallelujah
How we'd lose ourselves, ourselves
Stop drinking it's a waste
Things have lost their taste
The light that circled 'round you face
Has gone and now replaced with a darker tone again
I heard you singing
Heard you sing, you sang to us
You sang Hallelujah
How we'd lose ourselves, ourselves
Are we better on our own?
Are we better on our own?
Do do do do do do do do do do do
Do do
Was I good?
Was I brave?
Did I throw it all away?
There's a light in the crack
He's never coming back
I got lost in the wind
And I messed up everything
Till I heard you singing
I heard you sing, you sang to us
You sang Hallelujah
How'd we lose ourselves??, ourselves?
I heard you singing
I heard you sing, you sang
