when i's confuse with my way i had no plan to go all of my word i had say but she was saying let it flow so i got the classic bar with blues and crunchy sound they were playing like a star and my girl now got the feeling down its a friday show

its a beautiful night show
when the time is go
i swear we can get along to see it more
for the next friday show and i still on my way to made her feel like me you had a lot words to say but you didn't looked at me i knew that something wrong and i couldn't give you anything but i didn't want you sing along cause i would give you everything

for the next friday show
