Yeah, lyrics rock well, yeah,
I am a lyrical monsoon, a battle with me is like a showdown at high noon Take ten paces turn and spit, I keep coming up with more prose to burn you with It's lyrics rock well, don't you forget the name I'm going out of this rap game the same way I came Underground, and the reason why Is cause the day I start rapping will be the same day I die
Your style is old son you need to grow
I got deaf cats coming to shows to feel my flow I'm a monster, nothing to play with And so underground I'm lounging under tigers basement
Knowing I'm better than you all are makes me fearless
So all you rappers say your prayers when you hear this Ain't a cat in the world that can contend with me I'm the lyricist that all of you rappers pretend to be ( Chorus)
With my crew, everything's real, we don't front, in our ciphers
The mike gets passed like a blunt
In the sessions the blunt gets passed like a mike See me stomping on any emcee you think is nice I'm a warrior on the mike it's best not to test me You're losing your grip, you couldn't hold a grudge against me
I'm a pioneer of tomorrow Cause I'm the cat that future emcees are gonna follow
When this is just the beginning to get your ears wet My rhymes are so ahead of my time, I'm not even here yet
You lack skill and imagination
You couldn't get the crowd open, like a safe with no combination
Keep your raps about guns and crack
I'm here to bring the true essence of Hip-Hop back

The emcee, the DJ, Graffiti, the Breaker It's time for all you fakers out there to meet your maker
And while I'm here lets get one thing clear I never feel any pressure cause I have no peers, so Don't ever step to rock well in a mike bout
I play like an unpaid bill and put your lights out
( To Chorus )
I've been nice all my life rocking mikes since I was one Bout to make my name bigger than the city I'm from, Chi-town, Whack cats put your mikes down
All I wanna hear is real Hip-Hop right now Humiliating every rapper I see, even at your headline tours you open for me
The greatest lyricist, lyrics rock well, here he is An emcee guaranteed to put it down period, you must admit my flow is flawless I'll throw you out the game like your name was rashed wallets
I put whack cats to rest Biggie came to me in a dream and told me I'm the best
I'm the illest emcee on the mike Music is my fuel, put me on a stage, watch me ignite
I'm the last of a dying breed
About to spawn a new generation of real emcees.
( To Chorus )
