it's by your side, it won't go away it's there to haunt you night and day took a wrong turn and now you're fucked gonna lose your mind, gonna self-destruct you want to go back, but there's no way your head's in your hands, and it's there to stay your vision is faded, you can't fucking see 'cause that thing called regret won't leave you be it'll break you down, it'll tear you apart is this nightmare over, or did it just start? it doesn't matter what you do second chances aren't given to you
