Not askin' for pity or sympathy, but I think there's something wrong with me.

Maybe I need some medication (can't keep setting expectations). never wanted any attention, tried to avoid confrontation. help me find a solution other than isolation. never wanted any attention, tried to avoid confrontation. help me find a solution other than isolation. other than isolation. other than isolation. isolation. isolation. isolation. never wanted any attention, tried to avoid confrontation. help me find a solution other than isolation.
