Left wing, right wing, you're hurting my head. going to "make a change" yeah, it's all been said. all the books and magazines, the newspapers and tv screens, outlets adding fuel to the fire, preaching the bullshit to the choir. democrats, republicans, get out of my way. I can't believe a fuckin' word you say - no - I'm too paranoid. too paranoid for politics. corrupt agendas, concealing tricks. I have no stance 'cause I've got no trust, so I'll just spectate in disgust. too paranoid for politics.
