Gone until the early evenin', search for her
A vault's inside that I've been yearnin' for your love
There's wave to catch you through the air waves
To change your mind
Tonight I hope you hear me copin' one last time, hey

Everybody is somebody's baby
Until the point till you drive me crazy
And no answer, no phone, I'm not home
Drop everythin', headed over to Stockholm

You dealt with your fears, hugged the truth
The out lookin' in, ignited the fuse
The words you made emerge
Leadin' on a verse to a path you should deserve

People around town tell me words of absurd
Now I got a light in the dark, I'm at the curve
Lookin' for my love like your mighty but only hurt
Never face to face but it's time we make it worth, make it worth

Hold up, got stories to tell Someone pack us in smile, have recorded the mail, the mail
My love, my love, see you next time
Just know, never forget mine, hey

Gone until the early evenin', search for her
A vault's inside that I've been yearnin' for your love
There's wave to catch you through the air waves
To change your mind
Tonight I hope you hear me copin' one last time

Talk to me, I need you now
Sing to me and soothe my air
See it was all giggles when you was here
And now the snapshot, is it shoe for nail?

You the queen bee on some love kim shit
Let's fly away, handle our business

My best bug and my hug bug
And now you know I've got bitten by a love bug

And when you're dancin', shake that curly hair
Strange takin' back to the early years
Had a skinned dick, [?]
I'm checkin' in, ask the clerk if he saw you

And on some young shit, hum drum dumb shit
Skyline great, got my body on some numb shit
If not now, guess I'll see you next time
Just know, never forget mine, hey

Gone until the early evenin', search for her
A vault's inside that I've been yearnin' for your love
There's wave to catch you through the air waves
To change your mind
Tonight I hope you hear me copin' one last time

Gone until the early evenin', search for her
A vault's inside that I've been yearnin' for your love
There's wave to catch you through the air waves
To change your mind
Tonight I hope you hear me copin' one last time
