*Go

(Mark Hoy): verse 1

The bomb drop
Ready to rock populace
Top dollar to watch
To dust goes metropolis
The bang bang
Like a spike to the vein
But it feels so good that you'll never complain
I said anybody can get it
Even you can
I'd like to introduce you to the seven member battering ram
Goddamn their game is too out of hand We're moving too elusive got them switching up their battle plans
When we set up
All you gonna get up
What they need now is what we're gonna give them
No we won't let up changing no lanes
No fear to find I'm fit to fly get the hell out of my way.

(Chimaroke Abauchi): verse 2

You looking for me?
I'm your man...
Dolomite, Jesse James, Bruce Wayne
What what whatever you need ain't new to me, come and hang...
Come and try all of my everything
Got plenty of anything
Overload till you crawl again
Salivate with new claws and fangs
I'll take the blame for you all the way
Better live your life than throw it away
So they say: you'll fall astray,
If you follow me you'll probably change but they don't know so they say the Worst of what I can be.
I can be:

Who you feel, when you want, why you see,
Whatever you like
All for one until you understand that everything I'm giving you's for I Don't run cause I'll chase
Like Pepe Le Pew in his pace
I know that you'll compromise so everything I'm giving you's alright

Chorus:

Oooo
See, we're only trynna make em go
Oooo
Proceed, we're only trynna make em go
Oooo
See, we're only trynna make em go
Oooo
Proceed,

Bridge:

(You know that it won't stop don't let it go, We gone get
it) x4
