Intro:

That's all you've got right

A dream

Along with people saying you won't make it

Cause you're too weird or too different

Well fuck the people that don't believe in you

Do what you do best and fuck what anybody else says

Always do you

Let's get it man

[Verse 1]

This is a message to everyone who said I would lose

Never believed that rap was something I ever could do

Caught up in irrelevant fueds that would get me confused

With who my real friends are but I went far to settle it through

Now I'm progressing to a different level of excellence

Improving to prove to you stupid losers who represents

Every kid who has a dream, but people demolish it

But now I'm here to tell you that, evil ain't conquering

We can fight till we're victorious, and tonight we're feeling glorious

And I put my heart and soul in this so they had better be awarding it

And the more I sit and think of how much time that I've been pouring in Everyday and night, I may be right, that I'll get big, I'm sure of it

But don't confuse confidence with cockiness, I got that shit

My entire life when I said that I'll make it, it's cause I won't stop of

Quit

I'm not about to give up, I don't give a fuck if you think opposite

I'm about to hit the top so now look up and see who's dominant

[Chorus]

You're feeling like a champion
There's nothing that can't be done
And this is the anthem son

Middle finger in the air
Screaming we don't care
Cause each one of us is a champion

Yeah, yeah, you're feeling like a champion
Yeah, yeah, there's nothing that can't be done
Yeah, yeah, you're feeling like a champion
You're feeling like a champion

[Verse 2]

Now that I'm thinking back, I was the kid in class nobody would sit with The outcast who'd have to listen to people laugh and actually rip this Whole world in half to have me fall back in the abyss I live in
Given the fact, I didn't have rap that led to bad decisions

Every drug I took, shot I drank, to fuck me up, and stop this pain
The friends I lost I could not regain, but when I found music my optic Changed Problems came, I could write it out. Solutions put in the mic and sound
So everytime I get to speak my words, you could feel the emotion that lies About

I want you to feel a connection, let me occupy your mind
Step inside your shoes, obsolete your life
You can feel what it's like to die even when you're close to suicide
But I hope you chose to live, cause you only lose one time

Don't abuse the chance you get, gotta make choices you can't regret And emancipate from reality, then you can't complain and you can't object Just live life like it's one day left and progress everytime, one foot one

Step

Till you get where you want to be and all you see is the top, you're the

Fucking best

Yes

[Chorus]

You're feeling like a champion

There's nothing that can't be done

Screaming we don't care

You're feeling like a champion

[Verse 3]

Success isn't measured by money

It's calculated by how good you feel when you're doing something

Don't make assumptions bout people you feel aren't doing nothing

They could be poor, they could be broke, they could be alone and they could

Love it

When you don't have a lot, you appreciate what you have

Alleviate all the pain, depreciate what is bad

You could be living on the streets or living within a mansion but

It's happiness and love that has you feeling like a champion

[Break]

We are not one

But we are many

Fighting for the same thing

Fighting for our dreams

We will not stop

And we will not quit

Until we

Escape, reality

[Chorus *Down Pitched*]

You're feeling like a champion
There's nothing that can't be done
And this is the anthem son

Screaming we don't care
Cause each one of us is a champion

Yeah, yeah, there's nothing that can't be done
Yeah, yeah, you're feeling like a champion
You're feeling like a champion
