Lets go, Lets go... STOP

Dont break the rules!

Hi, Pay attention!

Dont be too proud to admit when ya hear the sound.

God is movin in this place. So forget about sin, clean ya plates wit grace and love.

Feast up on the word of God!

Fill your heart to the brim but dont be full,

Keep filling!

God has unlimited potential for all his Children!

As the winds of change sweep over me,

I know it's my Destiny to set free,

all those who come to me,

in search of the Lord.. Let me see!

You are the way, the truth and the life!

God of mercy. God of might!

Bless me now as I rock the mic,

To all your children I bring the light!

We're moving in Gods love,

Rockin on a mic till we fill the club

and we STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth.

The beats and the words collide,

everybody on the floor just lost their stride..

and they STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth!

Back again with the sound of the underground

but not Girls Aloud!

Here's the new one!

It's the true wan, Outcast Youth.

Better call forensics, here's the proof;

Jesus' fingerprints on my music.

Any lingering doubt..?

Time to lose it!

Raise ya hands as we praise the Lord.

Jump around!

Lets break the mould!!

As the winds of change sweep over me,
I know it's my Destiny to set free,
all those who come to me,
in search of the Lord.. Let me see!
You are the way, the truth and the life!
God of mercy. God of might!
Bless me now as I rock the mic,
To all your children I bring the light!

We're moving in Gods love,
Rockin on a mic till we fill the club
and we STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth.
The beats and the words collide,
everybody on the floor just lost their stride..
and they STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth!

Last call... The ship is leaving.
Captain Partridge defence is breaching.
Khali couldnt hit the heights I'm reaching when I'm filled with the Spirit while I'm preaching!
Everybody wave your hands
side to side. Time to dance!
Here we go... Take your chance!
Rock for the Lord? Make a stance!

As the winds of change sweep over me,
I know it's my Destiny to set free,
all those who come to me,
in search of the Lord.. Let me see!
You are the way, the truth and the life!
God of mercy. God of might!
Bless me now as I rock the mic,
To all your children I bring the light!

We're moving in Gods love,
Rockin on a mic till we fill the club
and we STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth.
The beats and the words collide,
everybody on the floor just lost their stride..
and they STOP, Drop to Outcast Youth!

Let's go, Let's go...
Stop.. Dont break the rules!!
