

This Broken Thing "End Of Time"

Visit "End Of Time" on MotoLyrics.com

It's late in the night
But in the end I lie awake
Watching the sky
And I dream of our escape

Floating away, drifting astray
Into another place and time
Where empires fall, we break down the walls
We're undefeated you and I

I'm painting a picture, vivid with colors
Eyes upon the sky
Let's stay in this moment
Now and forever
Until the end of time

We follow the rain
All that we ever knew is gone
So how does it end?
Only the brave would carry on

Take me away, lead me astray
Into another place and time
Where empires fall, we break down the walls
We're undefeated you and I

I'm painting a picture, vivid with colors
Eyes upon the sky
Let's stay in this moment
Now and forever
Until the end of time

Will you come and sing me a love song?
Everything has turned into grey
Waited for this moment for so long
Will you come and take me away?
