No one else can hear this sound
Weâ€™re lifting high above the ground
Weâ€™re leaving, undetected

Reaching out to touch the sky
Gliding through the lonely night
Weâ€™re leaving, unsuspected

Counting every single heartbeat
Now weâ€™ve left the ground
Moving on through time and space
Whatâ€™s lost has now been found

Holding on with every heartbeat
All is left behind
Moving on through time and space
Whatâ€™s lost has now been found

All we know is down below
A fading world, a distant glow
In need of reinvention

No more castles in the air
And I believe youâ€™ll take me there
A parallel dimension

Counting every single heartbeat
Moving on through time and space
Whatâ€™s lost has now been found

Holding on with every heartbeat
All is left behind
Moving on through time and space
Whatâ€™s lost has now been found
