I'm giving up
I know something's wrong
Tell me what it is
The world is black or grey or there's no fun anymore
I can't understand

I'm getting out
Of my mind, of my heart
Tell me, what is this?
I used to know where I belong but, where is it now?
Where is it now?

Come take me to that place
Where you'll never feel alone
Come don't want to forget
What has always been my love

Don't want to get lost in the town of nowhere
Lonely because everybody looks all the same
Don't want to get lost with my mind so blinded
Vanished when I can't even remember my name

I'm getting out
Of my mind, of my heart
Tell me, what is this?
I used to know where I belong but, where is it now?
Where is it now?

Come, come take me that place
So we can go away
Come, come take me that place
That you call home

Come take me to that place
Where you'll never feel alone
Come don't want to forget
What has always been my love

Don't want to get lost in the town of nowhere
Lonely because everybody looks all the same
Don't want to get lost with my mind so blinded
Vanished when I can't even remember my name

Come take me to that place
Come take me to that place
So we can go awayâ€¦
