You said you see me running and that is no surprise
When I was far from danger, I opened my eyes
When I look back in anger for I did nothing wrong
It's just a race for strangers and this race goes on

I'm so glad that I don't need her
And I'm too tired of trying to please her
But in the end I just can't leave her
Can't leave her tonight

You've got a different story from anything that I've been told
But you evade the glory coming from the cold
Don't wait until tomorrow, don't push it back to another day
Don't try to hide your sorrow what else can I say

I'm so glad that I don't need her
And I'm too tired of trying to please her
But in the end I just can't leave her
Can't leave her tonight

You said you see me running
But that was no surprise
When I was far from danger
I opened my eyes

I'm so glad that I don't need her
And I'm too tired of trying to please her
But in the end I just can't leave her
Can't leave her tonight

I'm so glad that I don't need her
And I'm too tired of trying to please her
But in the end I just can't leave her
Can't leave her tonight
And not tonight
