I bet you'd like this seat tonight
It's not a show you'll see on Sundays
If you should blink just once or twice
You might need this piece of advice

You'll never get another chance
Don't take your eyes away for nothing
The main attraction's gonna start
This ain't no place to be weak hearted

The main attraction's on tonight
So don't forget to turn the lights down

I thought I'd seen it all before
Something tells me don't be so good
Anticipation on my mind
I can't imagine what she'll do this time

It seems more special than effect
This show isn't even over yet
The main attraction's still to come
She's just a teaser when she's starting

The main attraction's on tonight
So don't forget turn out the light

I'd like to see if you're for real
So can't we make some kind of deal, yeah
You say there's no such word as can't Making you the girl that I'd want

Let's get this intro out of the way
It can wait until another day
The main attraction's coming up
And you ain't leaving 'til it's over

The main attraction's on tonight
So don't forget to turn the lights out

The main attraction's on tonight
So don't forget turn out the light
