Call me crazy but I'm still in love with you
Call me lazy but there's little I can do
I count the days just like I blink my eyes
Your quick good bye

I think it's funny that I still recall your scent
But can't remember how our yesterday was spent
It's not my memory that's failed you
It's you not me

If you don't play me, someone's gonna save me
But you're always gonna beat this heart of mine
If you just believe me, no reason then to leave me
Let's pretend you think I'm right this time
You always gonna beat this heart of mine

You're very beautiful of that I'm sure you know
How many others fellas long to tell you so
For everyone who needs a fresher start
A broken heart

You send it from fast to slow
Stop and go and you know
The rules of engagement here
Let's be clear, when you are near
The usual rules just get in our way
