I don't read your old love-letters, hangin' on to yesterday
I'm over that, now I don't act that way
And I don't sit home with your pictures, drinkin' myself blind
I've learned to live with losin' you and I've gone on with my life

But I can't shake it, it just won't leave me
Since you left I'm all it's got, girl it needs me
And I'm okay with the fact you're gone
I let go, but your memory keeps hangin' on

I could go out every evenin' with somebody new But it's always there remindin' me of you Your memory just don't get it, you don't love me anymore
It's standin' on the threshold while I'm tryin' to close the door

And I can't shake it, it just won't leave me
Since you left I'm all it's got, girl it needs me
And I'm okay with the fact you're gone
I let go, but your memory keeps hangin' on

Now girl don't think I blame you, God knows it ain't your fault
You did your best the day you left, but you didn't take it all

I can't shake it, it just won't leave me
Since you left I'm all it's got, girl it needs me
And I'm okay with the fact you're gone
I let go, but your memory keeps hangin' on Yea, I let go, but your memory keeps hangin' on
