You say your leavin' has been comin' for some time
But I know you left me long ago, in your mind We've just been goin' through the motions, both hangin' on, still knowin'
That the love we once had's become a habit we need to break
I could beg you to lie and say there's hope
But there's no use for me to try, cause we both know

You can't say that again, we can't go back again
And fall out of the same ol' love, that we once fell in You can't walk out the door and say you don't love me
anymore
You said it's over, now you can't say that again

When we had nothin', you swore nothin' would come between us
You and I were all we had, and that was enough Now the love we built to never die, has moved on and left a great divide And goodbye burns the final bridge that we have left to cross
I could beg you to lie and say there's hope
But there's no use for me to try, cause we both know

You can't say that again, we can't go back again
And fall out of the same ol' love, that we once fell in
You can't walk out the door and say you don't love me
anymore
You said it's over, now you can't say that again

You can't walk out the door and say you don't love me
anymore
You said it's over, now you can't say that again
